Key developments in Q4 2018

- ▶ The FCA confirmed details of a Brexit related temporary permissions regime, for financial services firms from the EEA that currently 'passport' into the UK
- ▶ The new custody rules for UCITS/AIF Depositaries were published in the EU's Official Journal on 30 October 2018. Depositaries have 18 months to comply

BREXIT – FCA's Temporary Permissions Regime Affects: All REITS and REIT managers authorised in the EEA that undertake business in the UK	As part of the UK government's overall Brexit approach, the Financial Conduct Authority (empowered by statutory instrument) is rolling out a Temporary Permissions Regime (TPR) for financial services firms from the EEA that currently 'passport' into the UK. Firms that apply for temporary permission will be able to continue their business in the UK as normal for a period of up to three years following 'exit day', by which time they will be required to apply for full UK authorisation. The FCA began accepting 'notifications' (via the Connect system) for the TPR on 7 January 2019. The notification window is open until 28 March 2019. EEA firms and fund managers that do not submit a notification by this date will not be able to participate in the TPR, and in the event of a 'no deal' Brexit, will lose the ability to market and operate in the UK. Firms that submit notifications will then receive a 'landing slot' (no earlier than October 2019) whereupon they will be asked to apply for full UK authorisation. For UK REITS/firms that previously marketed or sold into Europe, currently in the event of a 'no deal' Brexit, they will need to become authorised in an EU member state to continue operating/marketing in the EU. To date, there has been no reciprocal TPR offering from the EU in respect of UK authorised firms, funds or fund managers. For more information please visit the FCA's web page on Temporary Permissions. The FCA has also produced dedicated TPR pages for fund managers of UCITS and AIFs.	From 7 January 2019 to 28 March 2019	Red

AIFMD/UCITS – Amending regulations Affects: AIFs, AIFMs, UCITS (CUSTODY)	The European Commission has issued two draft amending regulations in respect of AIFs and UCITS funds – effectively looking to amend AIFMD and the UCITS Directive. These were adopted by the European Commission on 12 July 2018. The regulations set out detailed requirements where custody is delegated to a third party. They build on an opinion issued by ESMA in July 2017. The opinion set out suggestions for possible clarifications of the legislative provisions under AIFMD and the UCITS Directive relating to the asset segregation requirements in case of delegation of safe-keeping duties by the depositary of a fund (UCITS or AIF) and the application of depositary delegation rules to central securities depositaries. The regulations aim to ensure a consistent approach across the EU and address concerns arising because securities and insolvency laws are not harmonised throughout the EU. The ESMA opinion followed ESMA work on these topics which began with a consultation paper published in December 2014 and was followed by a Call for Evidence published in July 2016. The Delegated Regulation was published in the Official Journal on 30 October 2018 and came into effect on 19 November 2018. Depositaries have 18 months to comply with the Delegated Regulation – meaning the final deadline for compliance will be 1 April 2020. See: Regulation amending Delegated Regulation EU 231/2013	30 October 2018 to 1 April 2020	Red

MIFID II – FCA to investigate MIFID II Inducements Affects: Asset managers, fund managers, investment banks, brokers	At its annual Asset Management Conference in June 2018, the FCA announced that it would begin a review of the application of MIFID II in regards to how it requires asset managers to pay for the research utilised in respect of the investment decisions they make. MIFID II presently requires asset managers to separate out the costs of research from transaction charges and commission in a process known as unbundling. The move was intended on improving investor protection by preventing asset managers from making decisions influenced by the provision of free research. However, the move has led to a dramatic fall in the price of research offered by some large banks in particular, prompting the regulator to consider whether the ‘spirit’ of MIFID II is in fact being complied with. The FCA review is expected to take six months. Despite being scheduled to take place in Q3 and Q4 2018, it does not appear to have taken place as yet. Indications are that the review will take place at some point in 2019. See: FCA page on MiFID II	2019	Amber

FCA Statement on communications in relation to PRIIPs Affects: manufacturers of Packaged Retail and Insurance-based Investment Products (PRIIP)	The PRIIPs Regulation has applied from 1 January 2018. Since then, PRIIP manufacturers have been required to prepare and publish a stand-alone document, a Key Information Document (KID), for each of their PRIIPs. The KID is a standardised document with a maximum length of 3-pages that follows the template and information disclosures prescribed by EU rules. Currently, PRIIPs requires asset managers to provide a KID that contains predictions of future performance in addition to broad estimates of transaction costs. The performance predictions can often result in misleading data and the rubric used to calculate transaction costs has sometimes resulted in KIDs with negative cost estimations. The FCA issued a call for input on 26 July 2018 asking for feedback on compliance with the new requirements. This call for input closed on 28 September 2018. The FCA intends publishing a feedback statement during Q1 2019. For access to the Call for Input document along with the FCA's latest position on PRIIPS regulation, please visit their dedicated web page. In the interim, the European Banking Authority has published further guidance on the current requirements to produce KIDs for PRIIPs. This includes additional Q&As, alongside updates to the flow diagrams for risk and reward calculations. The EBA's dedicated page is accessible here.	Q1 2019	Amber

Extension of Senior Managers and Certification Regime (SM&CR) to solo-regulated firms Affects: all FCA regulated firms	On 4 July 2018 the FCA published PS18/14 which contained near final rules on the extension of the Senior Managers and Certification Regime to all FSMA authorised firms. In PS18/14, the FCA confirmed that the extension of the SM&CR regime would apply to solo-regulated firms on 9 December 2019. Affected firms are required to be compliant by this date. It is also worth noting that from 10 December 2018 the SM&CR regime was extended to insurers, in addition to Banks and Building Societies. See: FCA PS18/14 and also see the FCA's SMCR webpage.	9 December 2019	Amber

Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD) review (CROSS BORDER) Affects: AIFs and AIFMs	The European Commission (Commission) was required to start a review of the AIFMD by 22 July 2017 (Article 69, AIFMD), which may result in a proposal to amend AIFMD. As part of the Commission's wider review of the functioning of the AIFMD, it has instructed KPMG to launch a survey for stakeholders on the AIFMD's requirements, the industry's experience in applying them and the market impact of AIFMD. In due course, this may result in proposals to amend the AIFMD. The KPMG survey closed to responses on 30 March 2018. Also, on 12 March 2018 the Commission published legislative proposals for a Regulation and a Directive intended to better facilitate the cross-border distribution of collective investment funds. The proposed Directive contains amendments to the AIFMD relating to pre-marketing, discontinuation of marketing and consistent treatment of retail investors. The amendments are with a view to better cross-border harmonisation and form part of the EU's wider Capital Markets Union initiative. The Commission intends for these proposals to be adopted before the European Parliament elections in May 2019. On 21 September 2018, the European Parliament's Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee (ECON) published two reports: the first contained a proposal for a directive on cross-border distribution of collective investment funds and the second, a draft report on a proposal for a regulation on facilitating cross-border distribution of collective investment funds. The two reports supported the Commission's earlier proposals to facilitate cross-border marketing. However the rapporteur also identified other areas of potential change: procedures for meeting marketing requirements by national authorities, transparency on fees set by national authorities, and the possibility of cross-border 'pre-marketing' of alternative investment funds. It is worth noting that broadly, the proposals would affect UCITS funds (whilst unlikely to be REITs). On 5 November 2018, ECON voted on provisions for the proposed Regulation and Directive. The provisions voted on were detailed in the draft report on the proposed regulation published in September 2018, which is accessible here. The press release published by the European Parliament following the vote can be accessed here.	Various	Amber

- ▶ The government is expected to announce its consultation on the new regulatory regime for high rise residential buildings following the publication of its Implementation Plan in December 2018

Issues	Status	Key Timing	Impact
Grenfell Review Dame Judith Hackitt's proposals to be implemented in full Affects: Investors in, owners and developers of high rise residential buildings (HRRB) and potentially extended to others	The Government confirmed on 18 December 2018 that the recommendations of Dame Judith Hackitt's final report will be implemented in full. Further details will emerge in the spring when the Government will consult on how to take forward the regulatory changes. The new regulatory framework will apply to new and existing residential buildings of at least 10 storeys (30 metres); and potentially, other new buildings and major refurbishments where multiple people sleep. The Government has accepted that there should be a duty-holder approach similar to the regime under the CDM Regulations 2015 and the need for duty holders to create, update, transfer and maintain a 'golden thread' of information. A Joint Regulatory Group (HSE, Fire and Rescue authorities and local building control and 'early adopters' (developers and industry organisations)) will trial various approaches. The Government will create a new governance structure for oversight of building regulations and will establish a Standards Committee to advise on new and existing construction products and system standards. A full technical review of fire safety guidance (Approved Document B) has also been launched. A review of Approved Document L (Conservation of Fuel and Power), Approved Document F (Ventilation) and Approved Document M (Access to and use of buildings) is also proposed. See: Building a Safer Future: An Implementation Plan The Government also announced a ban on the use of combustible materials in the external walls of residential buildings in the Building (Amendment) Regulations 2018 which took effect on 21 December 2018. These apply to residential flats, hospitals, residential care homes, dormitories in boarding schools and student accommodation which are at least 18 metres in height. See: Building (Amendment) Regulations 2018	Implementation plan issued 18 December 2018; consultation expected spring 2019 Combustible cladding ban in force: 21 December 2018	Amber

Construction: Value Added Tax – reverse charge to combat VAT fraud in the construction industry Affects: Suppliers and customers of construction services	Draft legislation has now been published which is set to come into effect on 1 October 2019. The legislation seeks to introduce a reverse charge for certain supplies of construction services in order to combat VAT fraud in the construction industry. Construction services have been targeted by criminals because labour-only suppliers do not incur any significant VAT on their costs but can charge VAT to their customers, which they then fail to pay to HMRC. The reverse charge mechanism will move the liability to account to HMRC for VAT from the supplier to the customer. This will be subject to certain exceptions, including in relation to supplies to final consumers. Construction services are defined consistently with the activities covered within the Construction Industry Scheme. Businesses will need to adapt their systems. See: Draft statutory instrument	1 October 2019	Green
RICS consultation on revised Code for leasing business premises includes heads of terms Affects: Property owners, managers and investors	The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) has launched a consultation on a new 'Code for leasing business premises', which will have the status of a professional statement (i.e. this is mandatory for members). This document will replace the voluntary Code for Leasing Business Premises in England and Wales 2007 and contains a new draft heads of terms template. See: RICS draft professional statement – Code for leasing business premises	Consultation closed; RICS response awaited	Amber
Changes to the way leasing arrangements are reported in financial statements Affects: IFRS/FRS 101 reporting lessees	The International Financial Reporting Standard 16 (IFRS 16) was introduced in January 2016 and came into effect on 1 January 2019, at which point lessees will see significant changes to the way their leasing arrangements are reported in their financial statements. IFRS 16 will be compulsory for IFRS/FRS 101 reporting companies, so including the consolidated accounts of UK and other affected companies listed on the Main Market and AIM. It eliminates the distinction between operating leases and finance leases for accounting purposes, creating a unitary model where all tenancies see their present value capitalised as an asset and future rental payments recorded as a liability. The government is consulting on the tax impact of these changes. See: IFRS 16 Leases	1 January 2019, although early take up is possible	Amber

Key developments in Q4 2018

- ▶ Legislation to implement the introduction of capital gains tax for non-residents investing in UK commercial property has now been finalised
- ▶ Legislation to extend UK corporation tax to non-UK resident companies with UK property income has now been finalised

Issues	Status	Key Timing	Impact
Introduction of capital gains tax for non-residents investing in commercial property Affects: (among others) non-UK residents investing in REITs and non-UK resident entities forming part of a UK REIT group	The government published a consultation alongside Autumn Budget 2017 on proposals to apply capital gains tax to all forms of property investment by non-residents. This means that commercial property gains will, for the first time, in principle become subject to tax for non-resident investors from April 2019. In addition, previously applied exclusions from tax on gains on residential property investments, including for widely-held vehicles, will be removed. These changes will affect non-residents investing in REITs and non-resident entities forming part of a UK REIT group. The consultation closed on 16 February 2018. Draft legislation was published on 6 July 2018. The draft legislation included some welcome changes from the original proposals, but there were also still some substantial outstanding issues, particularly in relation to how the legislation will apply to collective investment schemes. An amended version of the legislation was included in the Finance Bill that was published on 7 November 2018. REITs are already exempt from UK tax on property gains. However, the Finance Bill also amends the REIT legislation to exempt disposals of property rich entities made by REITs. As expected, the 25% substantial interest test will not apply to REIT investors, making it more likely that minority investors in REITs will be caught by the new rules. The legislation has been considered and agreed by the House of Commons, with further minor amendments, and is now in final form. See: Taylor Wessing briefing in relation to the 6 July 2018 draft legislation	April 2019	Red

Brexit related legislation Affects: General	The UK is set to leave the European Union on 29 March 2019. The European Union (Withdrawal) Act was passed in June 2018 and other related legislation is currently making its way through Parliament. The Act will repeal the European Communities Act 1972, incorporate all relevant EU law into the UK statute books, and gives ministers the power to adapt and remove laws that are no longer relevant. A transition/ implementation period, lasting from 30 March 2019 to 31 December 2020, is contemplated in a draft withdrawal agreement, during which the UK would remain substantially in the same position as regards EU law as if it were a member state, but would not participate as a member state in EU institutions. However, the withdrawal agreement (and accompanying political declaration on a future relationship) have not yet been approved by the UK Parliament. It remains unclear whether Brexit will take place on 29 March 2019 and, if it does, whether there will be a transition period. A number of government notices to business have been published since summer 2018. In the absence of precise information at this stage, the potential implications of Brexit are currently beyond the scope of this horizon scanner, except for the temporary permissions regime for financial services firms (and potential lack of reciprocity from the EU on a 'no deal' Brexit) referred to in Financial regulatory above and reference to conforming rule changes and the potential cessation of prospectus passporting referred to in Capital markets below.	March 2019	Amber

Energy and carbon reporting framework to replace CRC Scheme Affects: Quoted companies and possibly all large UK unlisted companies	On 9 November 2018, the draft Companies (Directors' Report) and Limited Liability Partnerships (Energy and Carbon Report) Regulations 2018 were published. These Regulations take effect on 6 April 2019, in respect of financial years beginning on or after 1 April 2019, and implement the new regime for streamlining energy and carbon reporting regime (SECR), requiring additional reporting on emissions, energy consumption and energy efficiency action by quoted companies, large unquoted companies and large LLPs. The CRC Energy Efficiency Scheme is being abolished at the end of the 2018-2019 compliance year. As a result, businesses will be required to surrender allowances for the final time during October 2019. Alongside the existing requirement for quoted companies to report their greenhouse gas emissions, reporting will be carried out in directors' reports, as part of companies' annual reports. UK subsidiaries that qualify for SECR in their own right will not be required to report where they are covered by a parent's group report. They will still be able to report individually on a voluntary basis. Non-UK incorporated companies will not be required to report as they are not required to file annual reports at Companies House. Where a parent company is not registered in the UK, any subsidiaries that are registered in the UK and that qualify for SECR in their own right will need to report. See: The Companies (Directors' Report) and Limited Liability Partnerships (Energy and Carbon Report) Regulations 2018 and Streamlined Energy and Carbon Reporting: government response	April 2019	Amber

Shareholder Rights Directive amendment Affects: Main Market companies	The amending directive came into force on 9 June 2017 and EU member states will need to implement it by 10 June 2019. The implementing regulation (EU 2018/2012) on minimum requirements with regard to shareholder identification, the transmission of information and facilitation of the exercise of shareholder rights under the amended Shareholder Rights Directive came into force on 24 September 2018, but will apply from 3 September 2020. Provisions in the directive include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Measures to encourage long-term shareholder engagement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identification. To ensure that companies are able to identify their shareholders and obtain information on shareholder identity from any intermediary which holds that information. Shareholder rights. Intermediaries to facilitate exercise of shareholders' rights, including right to participate and vote in general meetings, e.g. shareholders voting in general meetings should have the possibility of checking after a meeting that a vote was validly recorded and counted by company. Intermediaries obliged to deliver to shareholders all information from a company that will enable shareholders to exercise their rights. Transparency. Institutional investors and asset managers to develop and publicly disclose shareholder engagement policy or explain why not. Shareholder vote on director pay and pay policy. Regulation of related party transactions (although less onerous than those in LR 11 for premium-listed companies the scope may in some respects be wider). Whether the UK is bound to bring this into force will depend on the final terms of withdrawal from European Union, but in any event many of the areas addressed by the directive are already covered by UK law, so most of the proposed measures would have limited impact on UK listed companies. See: Implementing Regulation on Shareholder Rights and Shareholder Rights Directive II.	June 2019	Amber

5th Money Laundering Directive Affects: trustees, beneficiaries of trusts, providers of e-money products (e.g. prepaid cards), organisations constituting 'passive non-financial entities'	The EU Fifth Anti-Money Laundering Directive came into force on 9 July 2018. Member states (including the UK) must transpose the new rules into their national legislation by 10 January 2020. Register of the beneficial owners of overseas entities that own UK property Affects: Non-UK companies (and their investors)	The creation of a new register of beneficial owners of overseas entities that own UK property (following a similar test as that used for PSC register). The government has published draft legislation, known as the draft Registration of Overseas Entities Bill, with comments requested on certain aspects. The government anticipates that, following royal assent and the making of secondary legislation, the register will be operational in 2021. An overseas entity falling within the scope of the legislation will be required to provide information about itself and its beneficial owners. Once registered, an overseas entity will be required to update the information annually until such time as it successfully applies to be removed from the register. In addition to criminal penalties for non-compliance, a failure to register (or failure to comply with the updating requirements) will result in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ an overseas entity being unable to register as a proprietor of land in the UK (necessary for obtaining full legal title) via the three land registries of England and Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland, and ▶ certain dispositions made by a registered proprietor that is an overseas entity being incapable of registration at the land registry. The register will, for the most part, be accessible to the public. Some information will be suppressed from the register due to the potential risk to individuals, such as date of birth and usual residential address. The register will not apply to overseas companies that engage in UK government procurement, as previously proposed. Corporate governance and companies approaching insolvency Affects: UK companies in or approaching insolvency (but some aspects may affect all companies)	On 26 August 2018, BEIS published the response to its March 2018 consultation on the governance of companies in or approaching insolvency. Specific actions and areas of further consultation include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Strengthening transparency requirements around group structures (possibly with industry guidance or a requirement for large groups to provide corporate structure organograms and reporting on corporate governance through the group). ▶ Strengthening shareholder stewardship (incorporating stewardship in asset managers' mandates and channels for investors to escalate concerns about company management). ▶ Strengthening the framework on dividend payments (which may include giving shareholders an annual vote on dividends if the practice of avoiding shareholder votes by using interim dividends is found to be widespread and pressure is sufficient). ▶ Greater accountability of directors in group companies when selling subsidiaries in distress. ▶ Enhancing powers of insolvency practitioners relating to value extraction schemes designed to remove value from a firm at the expense of creditors when a company is in financial distress. More details on these measures are awaited.	Ongoing	Green
Narrative reporting Affects: all companies other than 'small companies'	On 31 July 2018, the FRC published revised guidance on the strategic report. The revised guidance places a far greater focus on the directors' duty to promote the success of the company under section 172 Companies Act 2006. It addresses some of the practical issues associated with section 172 reporting, including assessing the long-term consequences of board decisions, identifying key stakeholder relationships and disclosing principal board decisions. The intention is to improve the effectiveness of section 172 and to stimulate board discussions on how companies are considering various factors to ensure their business is sustainable over the long-term, including the impacts on the company's key stakeholders. The Association of Investment Companies has said that it considers that most investment companies will follow the content elements set out in the guidance in Section 7A (for entities that are not Public Interest Entities i.e. do not have over 500 employees) and Section 8 (for 'large companies' in relation to section 172 reporting). See FRC revised strategic report guidance.	Ongoing	Green

Execution – electronic signatures Affects: all companies	On 21 August 2018, the Law Commission published a consultation paper on the electronic execution of documents. The Law Commission's provisional view is that under current law, an electronic signature is capable of meeting a statutory requirement for signature provided an authenticating intention is demonstrated, and that a legislative statement to confirm this position is unnecessary. The Law Commission does, however, raise the possibility of stakeholders gaining additional certainty by bringing a claim using a test case procedure. It also invites views on various provisional proposals for reform aimed at clarifying the law around the use of electronic signatures and facilitating the electronic execution of deeds. The consultation closed on 23 November 2018. Brexit related legislation – Draft Official Listing of Securities, Prospectus and Transparency (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 and FCA consultations Affects: all listed companies	A number of draft statutory instruments and policy notes have been published by the government, including the draft Official Listing of Securities, Prospectus and Transparency (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 and a policy note on those regulations. The regulations are intended to replicate, so far as possible, the current effects of the prospectus regime, the transparency rules and the listing rules but also make a number of changes, including the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Prospectuses for use in the UK will need to be approved by the FCA even if they have been approved by a competent authority of an EEA member state. Prospectuses passported into the UK before exit day may be used in the UK until their validity expires. ▶ Existing equivalence decisions regarding the presentation of historical financial information in a prospectus will be domesticated into UK legislation. ▶ HM Treasury intends to issue an equivalence decision (which will be kept under review) in time for exit day determining that EU-adopted IFRS can continue to be used to prepare financial statements for transparency requirements and for the purposes of preparing a prospectus. If there is a Brexit without a transition period, unless there is an equivalence decision (likely to be reciprocal between the UK and EU if it happened), prospectuses approved by the FCA could not be passported into the EU/ EEA, so that approval by a relevant competent authority would be required for offers into those countries if applicable exemptions were not available. See draft Official Listing of Securities, Prospectus and Transparency (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 and Explanatory information to the Draft Official Listing of Securities, Prospectus and Transparency (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019	March 2019	Amber

Brexit related changes to the FCA Handbook and technical standards Affects: all listed companies	The FCA published two consultation papers on its proposed changes to the FCA Handbook and onshored EU-derived binding technical standards on 10 October and 23 November 2018, if the UK leaves the EU without an implementation period. The FCA intends to give feedback on the consultation papers and publish near final instruments in early 2019 and publish a final version of the materials shortly before 29 March 2019. The FCA intends to limit amendments to the Handbook to those needed to ensure the Handbook remains functional after Brexit and reflect any legislative changes made by the government. The FCA does not intend to make any broader policy changes. For the most part the proposed amendments (which impact the Prospectus Rules, Listing Rules, Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules and MAR regime) are to update references to EU legislation, UK law which relates to or refers to the EU, EU institutions and concepts, and the EEA. See FCA first consultation on changes to the Handbook and Binding Technical Standards and FCA second consultation on changes to the Handbook and Binding Technical Standards	March 2019	Amber
FCA consultation on change to guidance on periodic financial information and inside information (FCA/TN/506.2)	The FCA published Primary Market Bulletin (No.19) on 11 June 2018, consulting on a proposed update to the guidance note UKLA/TN/506.1 on periodic financial reports and inside information. This follows the publication of ESMA guidelines on delay in the disclosure of inside information under Article 17(4) of the Market Abuse Regulation. The ESMA guidelines provide non-exhaustive examples of legitimate interests of issuers that are likely to be prejudiced by immediate disclosure of inside information, and situations where delay of disclosure is likely to mislead the public. In the proposed changes to the FCA guidance, the FCA sets out the example which may exist when an issuer is in the process of preparing a periodic financial report. The FCA does not think (and issuers should not assume) that this legitimate interest will always be present and notes it is limited to the situation when inside information emerges as part of the process of preparing a periodic report and is to be included in the report. The consultation closed on 23 July 2018. See FCA: Primary Market Bulletin (No.19) and FCA/TN/506.2 guidance consultation	Awaiting update	Amber

New UK Corporate Governance Code Affects: Main Market companies	The FRC has published the new UK Corporate Governance Code, supplemented by new Guidance on Board Effectiveness.
